

SLIIT Overview: Latest News and Information

Subtitle: Latest Developments at Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology

The Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology (SLIIT) is making significant strides in education and community engagement, with numerous recent initiatives and events that highlight its commitment to academic excellence.

Launch of MSc in Artificial Intelligence

SLIIT has recently launched a Master of Science in Artificial Intelligence. This program aims to explore transformative technologies and has been introduced through an event featuring prominent academics and industry leaders. This initiative positions SLIIT as a key player in the field of artificial intelligence education.

All News & Events

The SLIIT website serves as a hub for all announcements and updates related to the institution. This platform showcases a variety of events, including sports tournaments and academic collaborations essential for student engagement and community building.

Engineering Faculty Updates

The engineering faculty has been active by forming collaborations with various universities and organizing workshops to enhance student learning experiences. These initiatives are aimed at fostering innovation and engagement among students.

SLIIT Meet & Greet 2025

The upcoming SLIIT Meet & Greet 2025 event is designed to foster connections between students and faculty. This gathering promotes relationships and enhances academic engagement, essential for a vibrant educational environment.

Comic-Con 2025

The Department of Linguistics is set to host Comic-Con 2025, an event aimed at enhancing student creativity and communication skills through diverse performance-based activities. This initiative is expected to inspire innovative ideas among students.

Staff Cultural Celebrations (Wasantha Udanaya 2025)

In celebration of the Sinhala and Tamil New Year, SLIIT hosted a cultural event known as Wasantha Udanaya 2025. This event included traditional games and festivities, fostering a sense of community and cultural appreciation among staff members.

Business School Developments

SLIIT's Business School has formed a strategic partnership with Singer Sri Lanka PLC to enhance collaboration between academia and industry. This relationship will provide students with valuable internships and practical experiences, bridging the gap between theory and practice.

Events and Workshops

Recent activities at SLIIT include various workshops in robotics and a blood donation campaign, along with industry meetings. These events are designed to develop practical skills and promote community service among students.

Academic Initiatives

SLIIT has held inauguration ceremonies for new postgraduate programs, showcasing its dedication to continuous education and research innovation.

Cultural and Sports Activities

The institution has actively engaged in cultural celebrations and has introduced new sports like Pickleball, marking significant progress in promoting extracurricular development among students.

Contact Information

For more information, please contact SLIIT at:

- Phone: +94 11 754 4801
- Email: info@sliit.lk
- Address: New Kandy Road, Malabe

SLIIT continues to be a leading higher education institution, known for offering diverse programs and fostering academic excellence through engaging initiatives, collaborations, and community involvement.